Accolade Wines' House of Arras and Eddystone Point labels enjoyed a haul of trophies and gold medals at the 2015 Tasmanian Wine Show Presentation dinner in Hobart on Friday night.

The 2002 House of Arras EJ Carr Late Disgorged was awarded the trophy for the Best Late Disgorged Mature Vintage Sparkling Wine and the 2012 Eddystone Point Pinot Noir picked up the trophy for the Best Three Year Old Pinot Noir.

These trophy wins coupled with five gold medals across House of Arras, Eddystone Point and Bay of Fires earned Accolade Wines the Tasmanian Institute of Agricultural Research Trophy for the Most Successful Exhibitor, the second time in three years.

The annual Tasmanian Wine Show showcases Tasmanian wines, and recognises and rewards the skill and dedication to quality of Tasmanian grape growers and winemakers. It provides an opportunity for wine producers to compare their wines with other Tasmanian wines.

Also featuring prominently in the winners list was boutique producer Home Hill, which picked up four trophies for its Pinot Noirs. A full list of winners is available below.
